

Programme

Swiss Network of Young Migration Scholars Conference

Wednesday, 9 September 2026

University of Lucerne
Frohburgstrasse 3, 6002 Lucerne
Seminar room 4.B01

10:45	Opening remarks (Maja Łysienia) Precarity (Chair: Livia Tomas)
11:00–11:30	Michelle von Dach, “Stuckedness in the Lives of Migrants in Rome. An Ethnography of Everyday Navigation of an Existential Condition”
11:30–12:00	Jasmin Singh, “Administrative Frameworks and the Visibility of Migrants in Official Poverty Statistics”
12:00–13:00	Lunch break (60 min) Invitation to lunch at La Bestia Integration (Chair: Anna Marino)
13:00–13:30	Sabera Aitabar, “Narrating Integration: Standardization and the Invisibility of Highly Qualified Refugees in Switzerland”
13:30–14:00	Sarah Lucie Tews & Leila Vythelingum, “Between protection and integration: Narratives surrounding “refugee participation” in the organisational field of exile and migration in Switzerland”
14:00–14:15	Break (15min) Belonging (Chair: Fabienne Rast)
14:15–14:45	Carol Pierre, “Silences and Self-Determination: Contesting Migrant Narratives in 1974 London”
14:45–15:15	Marija Dangubić, “Belonging to Switzerland: A longitudinal investigation of migrants’ sense of belonging”
15:15–15:30	Break (15min) Deserving (Chair: Maja Łysienia)
15:30–16:00	Irina Radu, “Do deservingness considerations apply to migrant women in maternity care?”
16:00–16:30	Adrian Gjoshi, “Migration Justice through International Criminal Law? Maritime Pushbacks as Crimes Against Humanity”
16:30–16:45	Closing remarks (Maja Łysienia)